

OKLAHOMA CITY COMMUNITY COLLEGE COURSES AT MOORE NORMAN TECHNOLOGY CENTER

Save Time!

Oklahoma City Community College (OCCC) offers some general education classes at Moore Norman Technology Center's Franklin Road Campus. These classes are available to anyone in the community (high school students and adults) that meets OCCC admission requirements.

Advantages of taking OCCC classes on the MNTC Campus

- Smaller class sizes
- More parking spaces
- Classes offered in the same building & same area every semester
- Convenience
- A great way to transition to college

Save Money!

High school seniors graduating in 2020 may be eligible for 18 credits of tuition free their senior year! 2019 seniors need to inquire with OCCC's admissions department about receiving the tuition reimbursement. OCCC general education course tuition for Oklahoma residents is $100.84* per credit.

Tuition rate effective 11/8/18 and are subject to change. Seniors are still responsible for fees of $34.45 per credit. Students will also purchase any required book(s).*

High School Concurrent Enrollment Students

Get Started Here

www.occc.edu/admissions/concurrentenrollment.html

Do you plan to enroll in college courses at Oklahoma City Community College while you are still in high school to earn dual credit? If so, follow these simple steps:

1. Complete the Application for Admission

<https://recruit-web.occc.edu/>

Ellucian.ERecruiting.Web.External/Pages/Welcome.aspx The Application for Admission is required for all new students. Once you complete and submit your application, you can view possible additional items needed to complete the process.

2. Request an official transcript from your high school

The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education (OSRHE) require that all concurrent students submit an official transcript before getting admitted. You can bring your transcript and additional documents to the OCCC Office of Recruitment & Admissions or have your high school send it.

3. Submit official ACT scores OR SAT scores

In order to be eligible to enroll in concurrent classes, you must have taken the ACT. Official ACT scores must be submitted before you can be admitted. Visit act.org or <https://studentscores.collegeboard.org/home> for more information or visit with your high school counselor.

4. Speak to your high school counselor to see if you qualify

The OSRHE have strict eligibility requirements for students who wish to enroll in college courses while still in high school. If you meet the minimum requirements, you should speak with your high school counselor to discuss your options for enrolling concurrently.

5. Get approval from your high school and parents/guardians

If you have met the OSRHE requirements, and your high school approves you to enroll concurrently, you will need to submit OCCC's Concurrent Enrollment Form.

<http://www.occc.edu/admissions/Concurrent%20Form%2006-25-18.pdf>

This form must be completed by the high school, including signatures from the principal and counselor, and be signed by you and your parent or guardian.
